

THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

WASHINGTON, D. C. 20505

National Intelligence Officers

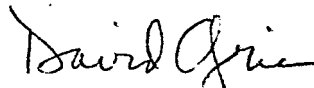

22 February 1982

Dear Professor [REDACTED]

Thank you for your letter of 18 February which arrived a week after I received Jim Lilley's cable on the same subject. After reviewing your impressive resume and talking with [REDACTED] and others, and taking into account Jim Lilley's strong recommendation, I am urging that you be seriously considered for a scholar-in-residence program in the office of East Asian Analysis. However, since I am not the director of that office, the ultimate decision is not mine to make, but I am doing what I can to influence the results.

You should be hearing from [REDACTED] shortly after receiving this letter.

Sincerely,

David D. Gries

Dear Mr. Gries:

I have just heard from Jim Lilley, who tells me that he cabled you about the fact that I am looking for a job and might qualify for a position with the Agency.

I had previously talked with [] and he and I agreed to talk later this spring about the possibility of a post as "visiting scholar" (I'm not sure of the exact title) with his unit.
